

MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD!

We want to know what you think about your summer reading books!

This year, the New York State Library and the New York Council for the Humanities' Together Book Club are teaming up for summer reading. Read a book on the summer reading list and send us your review. We'll publish your review on the Together Book Club blog and send you a FREE book!

Who's Eligible?

Any kid between the ages of 8 and 14 (3rd-8th grades).

Get Started

1. Visit the Summer Reading and New York State Libraries website (www.summerreadingnys.org) and click on Recreational Book Lists under Explore New York.
2. Read any book from the Explore New York book lists.
3. Write a review of the book you read. Visit the Together Book Club blog and click on Summer Reading for tips on how to get started: www.togetherbookclub.org.
4. Follow the instructions on the Together Book Club blog to submit your review.
5. Win a free book!

Questions?

Talk to your librarian or email Erika at together@nyhumanities.org.

New York Council for the Humanities